Ashley Bradley becomes MJC Law's first Associate

We are delighted to announce that on 01 April 2022, Ashley Bradley became the first Associate at MJC Law.

Ashley studied law at Sheffield Hallam University before joining a national firm as a paralegal within their Public Law team. She progressed her legal studies through CILEX Law School and qualified as a Chartered Legal Executive in June 2019, whilst working full time. It was during the five and half years working in her previous role, that she developed her desire to specialise in Court of Protection work and her passion for helping some of the most vulnerable people in society and their families.

Ashley then joined MJC Law in July 2019. Throughout her career at MJC Law and her previous employment, Ashley has established a high level of expertise in Court of Protection welfare and community care matters and is a valued member of MJC Law team.

This promotion is a significant step in Ashley's career and we are confident that Ashley will excel in her new role as an Associate Chartered Legal Executive.
